NCCW MISSION STATEMENT

The National Council of Catholic Women act through its membership to support, empower and educate all Catholic women in spirituality, leadership and service. NCCW programs respond with Gospel values to the needs of the Church and society in the modern world.

COMMISSIONS OF THE NHDCCW

The mission of NCCW and the NHDCCW is carried out through the work of its commissions. The Diocesan Council has three working commissions. Commission membership comes from individual members in the Diocese who have an interest in coming together with others to serve on and plan for enrichment of themselves and others in these areas.

Please indicate below which commission you may have an interest in serving on and someone will be in touch with you:

_____ Church:

The goal of the Church Commission (CC) is to create a community that is educated and dynamic. Catholic women called to discipleship and holiness respond with personal witness and service to the Church and to the world. The commission work reinforces faith and assists in meaningful ecumenical dialogue. It offers means to enhance public and private prayer, promotes sound liturgical practice that is sensitive to the cultural diversity of the church, and provides resources for spiritual nourishment and development of the faith community.

_____ Family and Community:

The goal of the Family and Community Commission (FCC) is to support and enhance the importance of family life within the church and society. The commission works to assist families in achieving a truly Christian life, while engaging people to address the needs and concerns of the community. It is focused on action that affects the life, growth, productivity and well being of all people, especially women and children and the communities in which they live.

_____ International:

The International Concerns Commission (ICC) promotes responsibility for the world community through the conviction that our wealth and resources must be shared with all peoples. In response to this call for global solidarity, the commission creates awareness and educates to the needs of women and children throughout the world. The commission encourages members to generously support the Works of Peace programs and the Works of Reconciliation implemented in partnership with Catholic Relief Services.
